

W. Todd Coffin

Mr. Coffin is Head of Structured Finance with TerraNova Capital and a Partner with Source Renewables LLC and Source Power Co. Mr. Coffin has over 30 years of Investment Banking specializing in corporate credit and project finance.

Mr. Coffin recently financed a 250MW joint venture for Unico Solar Finance, who's parent is a $5BN Real Estate asset manager. Most recently, Mr. Coffin has advised and placed all of the Credit funding for Danimer Scientific for the past five years. Danimer is a bioplastics ESG company, providing biodegradable straws to the fast food industry, as well as packaging for iconic brands such as Pepsi, Nestle, Mars and Phillip Morris. Danimer was one of the top performing SPAC's for 2020.

For 15 years Mr. Coffin was Head of Source Capital Group's Investment Banking department, Where Mr. Coffin led numerous renewable financings. During this time, he also was a founding partner of Greenbacker Capital, a $1BN AUM renewables fund and Greenbacker Renewable Energy Corp, where he financed the partnership with Guggenheim Global Infrastructure. Mr. Coffin started his career at Smith Barney and Alex Brown and Sons.